

Qgray@aol.com
07/10/2009 09:30 AM

To becky_rosamond@fws.gov
cc
bcc
Subject Birding Coldwater River NWR

Becky,

Yesterday the 9th, I birded the NWR from 3:45P.M. till 7:45 PM. The loop I made was between the ponds on the east side to the end and back up the main road. My list is as follows with any numbers over 10 as being estimates.

Anhinga 3
Ducks 25 (Mallards, Pintail, Shoveler, Wood ducks)
Great Blue Heron 5
Great Egret 75
Little Blue 7
Snowy Egret 11
Green Heron 15
Least Bittern 1
Turkey Vulture 4
Killdeer 6
Mourning Dove 6
Yellow-Billed Cuckoo 3
Pileated Woodpecker 1
Bluebird 3
Blue-gray Gnatcatcher 1
Tree Swallow 2
Barn Swallow 1
Common Yellowthroat 1
Eastern Towhee 1
Dickcissel 2
Blue Grosbeak 1
Indigo Bunting 15
Orchard Oriole 5
Red-winged Blackbird many Grackle

Meadowlark

Thanks for the permit

Q.B. Gray

Looking for love this summer? Find it now on AOL Personals.

Qgray@aol.com
07/22/2009 08:13 AM

To becky_rosamond@fws.gov
cc
bcc
Subject Birding Coldwater River NWR

Becky,
Yesterday, 7-21-09, I was birding at Coldwater River NWR from 8am till 11:45am and saw the following birds.

Anhinga
Ducks (estimated 75 with 1/2 being woodducks)
Great Blue Heron
Great Egret
Little Blue Heron
Snowy Egret
Green Heron
Yellow-crowned night heron (immature)
Black-crowned night heron (1 adult, 1 immature)
Turkey Vulture
Kildeer
Mourning dove
Yellow-billed Cuckoo (heard)
Bluebird
Tree Swallow
Barn Swallow
Dickcissel
Indigo Bunting
Red-winged blackbird
Grackle

Q.B. Gray
Nesbit Ms

What's for dinner tonight? Find quick and easy dinner ideas for any occasion.

9/29/09

22 Roseate Spoonbills on borrow pits north of Paducah Wells Rd
(2nd one to north, east of levee Rd.)